Hi Tim,

Should we ask the Court for a short telephone call on this? We are prepared to go forward, but if the Judge is inclined to postpone the settlement conference, we won't oppose.

Best regards,

Charlotte

With this factual dispute about Criddle, I think its pointless to go to a settlement conference until we can do some discovery or get disclosures that answer that question. I am inclined to ask the court to vacate our current settlement conference. What is your position on that?

Good Afternoon Tim:

In spite of what your client believes, or Tommie Criddle posted on Linked In, XTO has never employed Tommie Criddle or Mr. Glass. Accordingly, XTO played no part in Mr. Glass' employment or his alleged termination.

Nonetheless, XTO will agree to pay Mr. Glass $5,000 to settle this matter. We send you a form of settlement agreement that outlines the non-monetary details of the settlement offer.

Best regards,

Charlotte

My apologies for this being a couple days late, Travis working out in the field where he has little to no cell service. Per the court's order setting our settlement conference I am conveying to you that your client may resolve this by converting Travis' termination to a resignation, a mutual nondisparagement agreement and payment of $475,000 to remedy his noneconomic damages and dismiss the lawsuit.
